

Online Keynotes Virtual Learning

WWW.LEARN.MUSICINMIND.CA

Music in Mind has been presenting keynotes and workshops in schools for the last 15 years. We've been all around the world working with ALL AGE LEVELS and we are not stopping now. We have developed a brand new platform to reach you!

PROFESSIONAL ARTISTS

Anti- Racism & Black History

Explore the history of Black culture and the iconic figures who have helped pave the way to freedom and equity. A critical and sensitive examination of current issues that will inspire students to learn, grow and become change makers.

Mental Wellness & Mindfulness

Kindness is the greatest force for positive change in the world and Mind in Mind shares the important connection between kindness and mindfulness.

First Nations Cultural Awareness & History

Join Mimi O'Bonaswin as she shares her story of discovery and cultural awakening. Hear about the experience of growing up Indigenous in Canada as Glenn Marais takes your class through our nations true history.

& More

We have more modules available on various topics. All with pre and post lesson plans.

Contact us to learn more!

Step 1
Register and receive access code
Step 2
Populate the link into your classroom
Step 3
Share curriculum (online or printable)

FOR MORE INFO
(905) 751-7238

www.musicinmind.ca/

Who We Are?

Music in Mind is a music education and leadership company that empowers youth through music, character education and leadership skills development.

